E. Roden Makes Longest Run for Cadets by Squirming Through Broken Field for Forty Yards. Spectacular Plays.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., November 29.—Left Half Back Bock, of Tech, came into his very own to-day in the annual Thanks-giving football contest with the Virginia Military Institute, when he scored a touchdown in the first few seconds of the final period, V. P. I. winning by a score of 6 to 0.

Clean, fierce playing and fine sportsmanship featured the fighting throughout, which raged bitterly up and down a gridiron bathed deep in mire and mud. The game was a feast for the fans, who cared not to which side went the victory; but, to the fan who had his alma mater at heart, it was a terrible nightmare. It was a spectacle that made both Tech and Cadet men cry, tear their hair, go through wild gestures and throw their arms around the necks of total strangers, male, of course.

Not in years was a football game more stubbornly fought. Straight football featured throughout, and aerial attacks were remarkably few. The only successful forward pass was completed by the Cadets, in the second quarter, when Leech hurled the ball to Woodward for a gain of twenty yards. On two other occasions the Cadets attempted passes, but were blocked. Tech tried only one pass, which was not completed.

Each team tried desperately to score by kicking goals from the twenty and twenty-five-yard marks, but, owing to the slippery condition of the ball, attacks of this kind were few. End runs were few, both teams resorting to line plays and punting duels.

E. Roden, of Richmond, the Tech quarter back, made the longest run of the game. Catching a punt on his twenty-yard line, he squirmed his way PITTSBURGE, PA. November 29.—The University of Pittsburgh closed its college football schedule to-day with a 28 to 6 win over Pam State, making three seasons without a defeat for Glenn Warner's men.

Although to-day's contest was played on a field deep in mud, it was replete with thrilling runs and successfully completed long forward passes. Pittsburgh did all its scoring in the defense during the second and third quarters, seemingly bewildered by the triple passes and plays started from guasual formations employed by State. The game was a battle royal from start to finish, with Madame Luck rising into prominence at times, and each team too anxious to take advantage of the numerous fumbles and opportunities to score. There was never a let-up during the game, with the scene of the fighting shifting fast up and down the field, with the ball in midfield most of the time.

Bock and Leech resorted to a punting game, neither having a shade over the other. Each got off his punts well, averaging about forty-two yards. Not until the third quarter did the Tech cleven have a chance to score.

After V. M. I. failed to gain the required distance, Leech punted forty yards to Roden, who carried the ball back ten yards. The Tech backs got busy and made three first downs, Bock advancing the ball to within one-half yard of his goal line, when time was called.

When play was resumed in the final period, Bock, the plunging Tech back, battered his way through left tackle, scoring the only touchdown of the game. Captain Parrish failed to kick goal.

Bock, of Tech, was an outstanding back field star. His consistent ground gaining and his terrific line plunges were the features of the game. For Virginia Tech, Bock, Benner, Goday and E. Roden syarred in the back field, and Younger, Crisp and Parrish played sensational ball in the line.

Leech and Witt, of the Cadets, played in a spectacular way, each handling his punts well and showing unusual speed in carrying the ball, while Marshall, Goodman and Woodward played well to the line.
